Where Banging Began.

It has been a subject of wonderment to us where our pretty girls got the notion from of combing their front hair down over their foreheads and cutting off the ends so as to make the inch and a half of hair they keep hanging down nearly to their eyebrows, and which is irresistibly associated in our mind with an imperfectly sheared mule's tail. The mystery was solved to our satisfaction last night as we dropped into Dr. Jackson's. The doctor received from New Zealand yesterday among quite a variety of ferns and mosses, and other curiosities from that semi-barbarous land, the pictures of two Maori—the natives of that country—a boy and a girl—and the latter had her back hair all looped upon the top of her head and stuck through with white feathers and front hair was hauled down in front, the ends mingling with the eyebrows. So it is from New Zealand savages, and not from the American Indian Squaws, ladies that you copy the fashion. "Nuff said."

$50 REWARD.

I will give the above reward for the return of my pony, which was lost Wednesday night October 20th, 45 miles beyond Cañon Blanco, on Albuquerque road.

Said pony is Iron Grey, 4 years old, saddle and harness marks on his back; nice looking. When lost had on a striped horse-blanket and new white girth. Return the pony, get your money and no questions will be asked.
